

ATLAS COPCO ANNUAL REPORT SUSTAINABILITY INFORMATION 2016

Atlas Copco's priorities for sustainable profitable growth

In 2015, Atlas Copco launched its strategic priorities for sustainable, profitable growth. They were identified through a stakeholder-driven materiality mapping. The progress on these priorities are monitored with KPIs, and targets were finalized in 2016.

The materiality mapping process was guided by a number of international frameworks such as the GRI G4, but not limited to the definitions as proposed by the GRI. Stakeholders were encouraged to raise topics that were outside of the list of GRI indicators or aspects. The relation to Atlas Copco's reporting guidelines and stakeholder priorities, can also be found online at www.atlascopcogroup.com/sustainability

Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) Index

Atlas Copco is committed to transparent, reliable and timely reporting on the most material sustainability aspects, as identified through extensive stakeholder engagement. The Group's annual report 2016 has been prepared in line with the requirements stipulated by GRI G4 Guidelines, in accordance to the Core option.

Regarding General Standard Disclosure and Disclosure of Management Approach (DMA), the Group has chosen to report them as an integrated part of the annual report 2016. Sustainability information in the annual report including GRI "in accordance" level has been subject to limited assurance by Deloitte AB.

The entities included in the Atlas Copco Group's annual report's sustainability information 2016 are disclosed on page 130 in the annual report. The reporting boundary has been set in accordance with the accounting principles for the Atlas Copco Group's annual report 2016.

Atlas Copco reports on all material aspects and boundaries, and some additional indicators that are relevant to the organization. Some indicators are reported locally in Atlas Copco companies but not consolidated at the Group level. All Atlas Copco production units and distribution centers are included in the environmental reporting. All Atlas Copco companies are included in the social/employees reporting. The scope for the reporting of business partners in the annual report, includes production units.

UN Global Compact Advanced COP

Atlas Copco Group also reports against the UN Global Compact principles. The 2016 annual report is also the Group's Communication on Progress (COP) at the Global Compact Advanced level. The index can be used as a guide to understand Atlas Copco's commitments to the UN Global Compact's 10 principles. With regards to principles and criterion related to child labor, community engagement and public policy; these GRI G4 aspects were found to be outside the scope of materiality for the annual report 2016. However, Atlas Copco continues to integrate Children's rights into its business processes and policies, and acknowledges the risk on page 41 of its 2016 annual report (UNGC advanced COP criterion 3). Some public-private partnerships at the EU and international level is also disclosed in the annual report, as well as this index (UNGC advanced COP criterion 17). Details about Atlas Copco's community engagement program, Water for All can be found at www.water4all.org (UNGC advanced COP criterion 16).

G4-17 List all entities included in the organization's consolidated financial statements or equivalent documents, and those not covered by the report	130
G4-18 Process for defining report content	6–9, 130–131	1	Atlas Copco has an integrated annual report. The Group has made a Statement of Materiality and Significant Audiences, and engaged with over 200 institutional stakeholder directly and indirectly to identify the most material sustainability aspects. Input from employees, customers, business partners, civil society members and shareholders were mapped according to a stakeholder priority matrix. Issues that have a significant impact on Atlas Copco's business and were raised as high priority by stakeholders are given priority in the annual report, and guided the selection of material GRI G4 aspects for the GRI compliance index. Select topics that were mapped with lower priority, but raised by several stakeholders have also been included in the annual report as an exception. For example, Atlas Copco's approach to taxes was highlighted as a key topic by stakeholders in 2015 and follow-up on the issue included in the annual report 2016. The materiality findings were used to redefine Atlas Copco's KPIs for sustainable, profitable growth. The issues mapped on Atlas Copco's materiality matrix on page 131 are related to the GRI G4 aspects, but do not strictly follow the definition set by the G4 guidelines.
G4-19 List all the material aspects identified in the process for defining report content	6–7, 131	1	To guide the mapping, Atlas Copco has considered a number of external standards beyond the GRI G4 Aspect list, such as the UN Sustainable Development Goals and UN Global Compact Principles. The Group also informed its analysis with current and potential legislative trends, investor and NGO expectations, benchmarking with industry peers, business intelligence and risk mapping, lifecycle assessment information, that were raised in workshops with stakeholders, and reports we assessed. The outcomes of the materiality mapping have been approved by the CEO and Group Management, and will guide the strategy of the Group. The material aspects according to GRI G4 are: Economic, Environmental, Labor Practices & Decent Work, Human Rights, Society, Product Responsibility. The material indicators are presented in brief online, and in detail in the GRI compliance index.
G4-20 For each material aspect, report the aspect boundary within the organization	130–131	2	Disclosed with each material aspect and indicator in the GRI compliance index.
G4-21 For each material aspect, report the aspect boundary outside the organization	6-7, 130 GRI Index	2	Economic and financial performance is reported at group level as well as for the parent company. The material aspects were found to be relevant to Atlas Copco's approach to business partners (as defined by the Business Code of Practice) and customers, in addition to the Group's own operations. However, different indicators for the material aspects were found to differing in priority for different parts of the value chain. Disclosed with each material aspect and indicator in the GRI compliance index.

G4-DMA Report why the aspect is material. Report the impacts that make this aspect material	41, 51, 131	1, 2, 9	Total water consumption by Atlas Copco's own operations, as defined by the GRI indicator, was mapped with relative low priority by all stakeholders, because the impact lies primarily in the Group's value chain. Atlas Copco's business model focuses primarily on assembly which is relatively less resource-intensive, as water consumption patterns measured from 2010-2016 have shown. However, the Group is exposed to water risk in certain regions which could result in business interruptions. This was mapped as a higher priority, presented as risk and crisis management. Therefore, Atlas Copco Group has formulated a KPI targeting this under one of the strategic priorities. This is reported quantitatively and qualitatively in the 2016 Annual Report.
G4-EN9 Report the total number of water sources significantly affected by withdrawal by type	51, 129	11, 12	All of Atlas Copco's water supply comes from municipal sources. Atlas Copco used the Maplecroft water risk maps to identify operations in water stress areas, and has set a KPI to track the water consumption specifically in these regions.
